Butterflies and Bumblebees' Classes

The Butterflies and Bumblebees have settled back into life at Scoil Íosagáin. They have been enjoying our amazing jungle gym and swing in the playground while relaxing in our sensory room. The boys have got into the spirit of autumn and created pieces of autumn artwork over the last few weeks.

Boxing

Every Thursday we do boxing with our trainer Ed. We start with stretching and then we get our gloves on and start shadow boxing. We go in pairs for this. Boxing is good for your body and great for exercising. It's fun to enjoy this with your friends. I think boxing is a nice thing to be able to do in school , Mario Cismas- 6th Class

Minecraft

Two weeks ago we started doing Minecraft Education Edition. First we had to make our accounts by downloading the software and putting it onto our computers. We took down our login details and put them into our booklets that air made for us. Sir let us edit our avatars and we got to then go into a starter world and we began building our house that we planned out on our worksheet. I made a secret room in mine but I didn't know how to make it so my friend Matthew helped me. That's all for M.E.E. for now!

Maths Week (18th - 22nd October)

This week is Math's week. Yesterday we did a Maths Treasure Hunt. We had to find examples of maths all around us. For example, we had to find different 2D and 3D shapes and, perpendicular, parallel and diagonal lines in the yard. We counted the bars around the school gate and had to estimate all of our answers before finishing the question. It was really fun.

ART

We've done lots of art so far this year which has been really fun! So far everything is great so far but it's only looking funner and funner. First we did pattern polar bears after we learned all about bears in English and science. We also did half portraits of us where sir took our picture and cut half our face off and we drew in the rest. I also loved painting my own prayer rock!

David Walliams

During the first week in October, we were able to see an interview with David Walliams on Zoom. He was talking about his new book "Megamonster". He also was talking about his other books like "World's Worst Children" and "Boy in a Dress". He said his favourite character from his books was Danny from "Boy in a Dress" because he reminded him of himself as a boy. I enjoyed the way he was talking about the books and why he thought children should read them!

Interview with Author- Natasha Mac A' Bháird

Last week we had a zoom call with the author Natasha Mac A' Bháird about her book "Shay Given". Shay Given was a footballer famous for his amazing saves with the Irish team. He also played with Newcastle and many other teams. We got to watch a video of Shay Given's greatest football moments and then got to ask her loads of questions about being an author and a huge football fan. It was fun.

Barnardo's online safety programme

In September, Sue Cullen came into our school to teach us about how to be safe when on the internet. We learned that we should always set our profiles to private on apps like TikTok, Instagram and on the PlayStation. We also learned about Cyberbullying and what to do if we or someone else is being bullied. We should always tell an adult and also block and report the person that is bullying. This talk was fun and I learned loads about being safe online.

We will re open on Monday, 1st November at 8.50am.

Dear Parents/Guardians,

We have had a very busy first term Scoil Íosagáin. It's been wonderful for all of the staff to have everyone back, safe and well. We welcome a great bunch of new boys to join our crew in 2nd Class and we wish them and their families well in a new school. All the boys have worked tremendously hard in school and they are a credit to you all. Also, we welcome our new teacher, Emma O'Sullivan and wish her well in her new class.

There has been so much going on in the school since returning in September and as always I want to extend a big thankyou to all of the fantastic staff here in the school who keep this school running every day. I also want to thank the parents, as without your support we would not be able to have such a brilliant school in Dublin 12!

We hope all the families have a Spooktacular Halloween midterm and enjoy the break.

Stay Safe!

Aoife Wrynne.
